

Allowing bellsouth to remove access to independent ISPs radically restricts consumer choice. Without choice, we don't have the ability to guide our provider in the right direction of good service (i.e. we can't simply go to a different provider). Please continue to regulate the providers, and allow access to third party ISPs.